About NEET-PG 2026

The National Eligibility-cum-Entrance Test for Postgraduate (NEET-PG) is a national-level entrance examination conducted by the National Board of Examinations in Medical Sciences (NBEMS), New Delhi, for admission to postgraduate medical courses, including Doctor of Medicine (M.D.), Master of Surgery (M.S.) and other courses as specified by the competent authorities.

1. Eligibility Criteria

Admission to the M.D./M.S. programmes at Dhanalakshmi Srinivasan Medical College and Hospital (DSMCH) shall be subject to the eligibility requirements prescribed by the National Medical Commission (NMC), NBEMS, Medical Counselling Committee (MCC), Government of India, the affiliating University and other competent authorities.

1.1 Educational Qualifications

Candidates seeking admission to M.D./M.S. programmes must:

1. Possess a recognised MBBS degree or provisional MBBS pass certificate.
2. Hold a valid permanent or provisional registration certificate issued by the competent medical authority.
3. Have completed the compulsory rotating internship by the applicable deadline prescribed for the admission year.
4. Fulfil all other eligibility conditions specified in the official NEET-PG 2026 Information Bulletin and applicable admission regulations.

1.2 NEET-PG Qualification

Candidates must qualify NEET-PG 2026 by securing the minimum qualifying percentile or other qualifying criteria prescribed by the competent authorities for the relevant admission year.
Admission shall be based on the candidate's NEET-PG merit, eligibility, counselling outcome, seat availability and compliance with the applicable regulation.

1.3 NRI/OCI/Foreign Candidates

Candidates applying under the NRI category or other eligible categories must satisfy the applicable eligibility and documentation requirements prescribed by the Government of India, NMC, MCC and other competent authorities.

All supporting documents must be submitted in the prescribed format and within the stipulated time.

Important: Meeting the minimum eligibility requirements does not guarantee admission. Admission is subject to merit, seat allotment through the applicable counselling process, document verification and payment of prescribed fees.

2. Admission Procedure

Admission to the M.D./M.S. programmes at DSMCH shall be conducted through the applicable MCC NEET-PG counselling process, in accordance with the rules governing deemed-university seats and the relevant admission category. MCC conducts counselling for 100% of the seats in deemed universities, subject to the applicable regulations.

The general admission procedure is as follows:

1. Appear for NEET-PG 2026.
2. Obtain the NEET-PG score and rank.
3. Register on the official MCC counselling portal.
4. Complete choice filling and choice locking as prescribed.
5. Participate in the counselling process.
6. Check the seat allotment result.
7. Download the provisional seat allotment letter.
8. Report to DSMCH (DSISR) within the prescribed reporting period.
9. Submit the required original documents for verification.
10. Pay the prescribed tuition fees and other applicable charges.
11. Complete the institutional admission and joining formalities.
12. Obtain confirmation of admission after fulfilling all requirements.
